USURY IS NOT A GAME

Gambling must be a moment of leisure and should never become a pathology or a risky behavior. If gambling causes financial problems for you or your family, remember that you may easily become the target of attention from criminals or members of criminal groups.

IT IS EASY TO BECOME A VICTIM OF USURY.

The mistaken belief that you can solve your financial difficulties by turning to individuals who, at first, you may not recognize as loan sharks, can lead you to become their victim. The loan shark approaches you under the guise of a friend or someone who, apparently without any personal interest, is willing to help you solve your problems.

A LOAN SHARK IS NEVER A FRIEND OR AN ALTRUIST. ON THE CONTRARY, THEY ARE THE ONES WHO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR WEAKNESS.

Once you fall into the loan shark's net, they will begin - especially through intimidation tactics - to demand repayment of the money they lent you, applying extremely high interest rates, calculated on a monthly, weekly, and often even daily basis.
On the one hand, you will find it impossible to meet the obligations you have undertaken. On the other hand, the loan shark's threats and retaliation will increase.

YOU WILL THUS ENTER A DOWNWARD SPIRAL FROM WHICH IT IS EXTREMELY DIFFICULT TO ESCAPE.

BE CAREFUL TO RECOGNIZE LOAN SHARKS.

The "classic" loan shark usually presents themselves as a "benefactor," carrying out their (illegal) lending activity in a limited area and among well-known individuals. Sometimes they may appear as a friend or an acquaintance. In recent times, unfortunately, the classic loan shark activity has been joined by that of real criminal organizations, which operate using "unsuspecting" individuals. In gambling halls, one may come across a 'loan shark' who takes advantage of the immediate need of those trying to recover their losses by continuing to gamble impulsively, agreeing to repay double the borrowed amount on a daily basis.

NEVER TURN TO ANYONE WHO OFFERS YOU MONEY TO BORROW TOO EASILY.

Remember that the loan shark will never be your friend and will never solve your problems.

REPORT THE LOAN SHARK OR EXTORTIONIST AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.
SEEK SUPPORT FROM THE POLICE.

THE SOONER YOU REPORT IT, THE GREATER YOUR CHANCES OF GETTING OUT
